

EULENSPIEGEL PUPPET THEATRE COMPANY

The Flea

Storyline:

The Flea is a Spanish-American folk tale about a goat herder named Pedro who, with the help of an ant, a cockroach and a mouse wins an important contest and achieves his dream of joining a band. This show can be performed in English or, if the sponsor provides a Spanish speaker, in English and Spanish. It is enhanced with live music by Ron Hillis.

Troupe:

7-24 (small group includes only puppeteers; large group includes a troupe of puppeteers and a group of musicians (singing and playing rhythm instruments))

Casting Call:

Participants must be 4th Grade or older; puppeteers must be at least 4 _ feet tall
No theater experience necessary

Ensemble:

Puppeteers
Musicians
1 Production Manager (adult)
Puppet builders (optional)
Spanish speaker for 2nd narrator part (optional)

Stage Specs:

Indoors or outdoors
15 feet wide x 12 feet deep

Rehearsals and Performances:

3-4 hours per day for 2 days
1 dress rehearsal (day of performances)

Provided by Eulenspiegel:

Set, script, puppets, music, musician, lights and sound equipment

Visit www.puppetspuppets.com or email mallorys@lcom.net for more information and grant application form.